

Tentative Plan (Version 30 September 2019)
International Symposium

POLITICAL ECONOMY of SANCTIONS

Deutschhausstraße 3, Institutsgebäude (F | 04), (+1/1090), Marburg

Friday 13 December
16:30-17:30	Registration
17:30-18:00	Welcome & Introduction Mohammad Reza Farzanegan
18:00-19:00	Peter A.G. Van Bergeijk (International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University, the Netherlands) Why does our opinion on the success of sanctions change so often? Session Chair: Sajjad F. Dizaji (TMU)
20:00-22:00	Group Dinner for Presenters/Discussants
Saturday 14 December
9:45-10:30	Esfandyar Batmanghelidj (Bourse & Bazaar, London, UK) The ins and outs of Iranian industrial resiliency under sanctions Discussant: Farzanegan (CNMS) Q&A
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11:45	Mansoob Murshed (International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University, the Netherlands) Macroeconomic effects of trade sanctions Discussant: Dizaji (TMU) Q&A
11:45-12:30	Maysam Behraves (Lund University, Sweden) Why post-JCPOA Iran is experiencing an upsurge in state repression? Discussant: Fischer (CNMS) Q&A
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:15	Sajjad F. Dizaji (Tarbiat Modares University, Tehran, Iran) The political and military impact of oil sanctions in the Middle East Discussant: Badraddin (CNMS) Q&A
14:15-15:00	Mohammad R. Farzanegan (Economics of the Middle East, CNMS, Marburg) The effects of international sanctions on military spending of Iran: A synthetic control analysis Discussant: Behraves (LU) Q&A
15:00	Concluding remarks

Supported by:

GERDA HENKEL STIFTUNG