

PROGRAMME

Writing the history of empires

A joint workshop of Philipps-Universität Marburg and mpilhlt

27 May 2024, Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory

12:00-13:00 Welcome and registration

Lunch 13:00-14:00 Goethe-Universität Mensa

- 14:00-14:10 Stefan Vogenauer (mpilhlt), Introduction
- 14:10–14:40 Dolly Afoumba (Philipps-Universität Marburg), Franco-British monetary agreement from the end of 1939 to 1942: between war and colonial management
- 14:40–15:10 Prakhar Ganguly (mpilhlt), Transplantation of systems, laws and experiences of English Factory Acts and trade union laws to India and Australia (1850s–1950s)
- 15:10–15:40 Lena Jur (Philipps-Universität Marburg), Children of empire? Adoption history at the intersection of social and imperial history
  - Coffee 15:40-16:10
- 16:10–16:40 Martin O'Donoghue (mpilhlt), After Westminster?

  Imagining independent Parliaments in Ireland and India
- 16:40–17:10 Matilde Cazzola (mpilhlt), Missionary, foreigner, legal actor: the global legal biography of Louis Giustiniani (1790s–1855)
- 17:10–17:30 Benedikt Stuchtey (Philipps-Universität Marburg) and Stefan Vogenauer (mpilhlt), Concluding remarks