The application process for your master thesis requires four steps

Elements of the application process

1	2	3	4
Submission of application documents	> Topic assignment	Preparing an exposé	Registration at the examination office
 An application should consist of: a letter of motivation (max. one page) your current CV an current transcript of records 	Topics are assigned in a personal interview with a member of the department The topics are based on the research focus of the department	The exposé (max. two pages) should include the following content: • the problem definition • the goals of the thesis • the procedure of the thesis • A preliminary outline	Registration takes place by submitting the application for admission to the master thesis

