Specialisation
[18]

Institutional Economics

Accounting and Finance

Market-based Management

Digitalisation, Entrepreneurship,
and Innovation

- You choose one specialisation and must stay on this track. A mix of modules between specialisations is not possible.
- Solution: You may elect courses from another specialisation than yours in the study area „Electives“.
- There are many modules on offer for each track. Design a track with your favourite modules to reach the workload of 18 ECTS.

Structure of the EMEA programme

Study areas and modules

Electives
[18]

- Choose from numerous options in the import module list. Note that other faculties teach courses mainly in German.
- Please respect that faculties have their own rules regarding module/course/exam registration, attendance, assignments, etc.

Structure of the EMEA programme

Master Thesis
[30]

You have six months to complete the thesis. The topic must have a relevance for the MENA region.

To register the thesis, you must have acquired 48 ECTS in the study areas Introduction to the MENA Region, Economic Analysis, MENA Economics, and Specialisation.

When the time for the thesis approaches, present your ideas to potential supervisors and check with them the project's feasibility.

Once you have a supervisor, approach the Examinations Office to officially register your thesis.

Grading and exam regulations

Grading System
GRADING POINTS	DECIMAL GRADE	GRADE IN WORDS	DEFINITION
15	0,7
14	1,0	outstanding	outstanding performance
13	1,3
12	1,7
11	2,0	good	performance that is significantly above the average requirements
10	2,3
9	2,7
8	3,0	satisfactory	performance that corresponds to average performance requirements
7	3,3
6	3,7
5	4,0	sufficient	performance meets requirements despite its shortcomings
4-0	5,0	not sufficient	performance that does not meet the requirements

Grading and exam regulations

You will receive grades according to the following scale:

- 13-15: Very good
 - 10-12: Good
 - 7-9: Satisfactory
 - 5-6: Sufficient
 - 0-4: Fail
- In Marburg, marks are given within an interval ranging from 0 (lowest level) to 15 (highest level) points.
 - You have the right to take a look at your marked exams, and if you have a potential grading question, you will have the chance to ask the examiners for more clarifications.

Grading and exam regulations

- There are usually two exam periods per semester.
 - First sittings are usually held immediately after the lecture period ends.
 - Second sittings are held towards the end of the official semester.
- You must register for exams in order to take them. If you fail to register within the registration period, you are not allowed to sit the exam. The registration period for FB02 is available on the website.
- Schedules are available on the website of the Examinations Office, and you can find all information on dates of exams for each class in the Marvin portal.

Grading and exam regulations

Failing exams

- It is possible to take up to three re-sits of one exam. Failing the third re-sit exam in an obligatory module (failing 4 times in total in one obligatory module) implies being ejected from the EMEA programme!
- Modules can consist of various exam types, e.g., an essay and an exam. It might be the case that the module grade is an average of the exam and essay grade.

Re-enrolment

- To be eligible to participate in exams, you must be enrolled in the university. You will have to re-enroll at Philipps-Universität Marburg every semester by paying the semester fee.

Grading and exam regulations

Contact

Please visit the website of the Examinations Office to clarify simple questions, e.g., regarding exam schedule, registration, etc.

Re-enrolment

Re-enrolment

- To be eligible to participate in exams, you must be enrolled in the university. You will have to re-enroll at Philipps-Universität Marburg every semester by paying the semester fee.
- If you reside abroad during the third semester you can pay a reduced enrollment fee. You must first re-enroll by paying the total fee and then request a refund.

General course organization

Attending courses

- You should register for lectures and seminars. This can be done in the MARVIN Portal (marvin.uni-marburg.de)
- Participation in lectures is strongly recommended. In seminars, you are expected to participate in sessions, especially in block seminars.

Course material and information

- Course news and material will be provided via the learning platform ILIAS. Registration may be automatic when you register through MARVIN.
- Otherwise, you will need an additional password to register for a course, which is normally given in the first lecture.

Study abroad: applying for a study place

1. First, take a close look at the list of Marburg University's partners:
<https://www.uni-marburg.de/en/international/profile/networks/partneruniv-erasmus>
2. Then, contact the International Office for the application for funding (calculate 7-9 months for the whole process)
3. After that, please give notice to Dr. Tramontini who will also be available for further advice.

Application for study abroad is competitive since only few places are available!

Study abroad: earning credits abroad

- Approach the Transfer Coordinator Mr. Lawrence Brown with information about the contents and workload of courses that you will study abroad. <https://www.uni-marburg.de/en/fb02/studying/examinations-office/recognition/foreign-credit-transfer>
- The better the match between foreign and EMEA modules, the higher the chances for transferring credits. You can use any EMEA module, including interdisciplinary modules.
- Back in Marburg, you will have to hand in the original transcript to finalise the credit and grade transfer.

Study abroad: earning credits abroad

- Important Notice:
 - For the semester abroad, it is expected that you complete the equivalent of one semester (at least), which would require 30 ECTS.
 - Since the EMEA Study Guidelines only permit 18 ECTS as electives, you should plan to take at least two courses (for 12 ECTS) as part of your specialization during your semester abroad.
 - Alternatively, you could continue the missing credits when you return to Marburg, however that may require you to remain beyond the recommended 4 semesters in total for your degree.

Study abroad: planning reliability

- In certain ways, you will begin your study abroad experience in Marburg...
- The foreign university might release the academic calendar or course programme only on short notice.
- Maybe the only way to get a learning agreement is to leave for the stay abroad and showing-up in person at the partner university.
- Please adjust your expectations and be prepared to experience some frictions. Gathering information, e.g., from prior exchange students, will help you to anticipate difficult issues and deal with them better!
- We will provide you with support in case of problems.

— Alumni Career Statistics

Altogether, there are 96 alumni from more than ten different countries; 46 per cent of them are women. Our graduates work in professionally-advanced positions as analysts, managers, and researchers with reference to the MENA region. Part of the alumni continue their studies in form of a PhD.

Evaluation of 75 students in our alumni network in 2021 revealed that:

- 89.6 % of graduates were able to find a job within one year of graduation.
- 9 % continued studying a PhD programme after graduation.
- graduates can be found in many sectors such as consulting (40.3 %), finance (17.9 %), academia (13.4 %), ministries (11.9 %), as well as different other industries (13.4 %).

According to an alumni survey in 2013:

- 73% of alumni found employment within six months after graduation.
- 82% of alumni established a career strongly linked to MENA economics and business.
- 94% of alumni would recommend the programme to a friend or colleague.
